Oliver Decrow

ARTIST INFO

Oliver Decrow's music thrives on bass-driven synths. Drawing inspiration from bands such as Beta Evers, Boan, Boy Harsher, Buzz Kull, Joy Division, and The Cure, he creates tracks with minimal and carefully selected sounds combined with poetic vocals. Deep basslines, looping synthesizer sounds, and 80s drum machine samples converge to create an immersive sonic experience. During his live performances, Oliver Decrow passionately delivers his vocals while playing keys, infusing his shows with energy and authenticity.

BIOGRAPHY

Oliver Decrow began his musical journey in 2002, drawing on a rich background in the arts and formative experiences in Montreal and New York that deeply influenced his unique electro-wave sound. Returning to Dresden, he gained recognition in the underground scene, collaborating with artists like Sneaker DJ (Dunkeltier) and TopNotch. Known for his dark, introspective style, Oliver released his single

"Opus Pistorum" in 2020 on the I'm a Cliché label. His music has been featured on various compilations, including the acclaimed Zeitgeist+ Vol.2 by Cold Transmission. In 2023, he joined Cold Transmission Music and released his debut album "I'm Too Young To Die" with 13 tracks on vinyl, CD, and digital formats. Currently, Oliver is working on new live shows, his next album, and several remixes from his studio in Dresden.
